

In a Smooth-Running Seminar...

- Texts are used for the basis of thinking, discussion and reference
- Participants read text carefully for hidden meaning and comprehension
- Participants speak slowly and clearly
- Participants listen carefully to other participants and can paraphrase
- Answers refer to the most recently posed question – no diverting